

Eligible Research Output Types: Creative Works

Evidence required for any creative works/performances etc produced in the areas of Visual Art, Performing Arts, Film and Music is detailed in table below.

Creative Medium	Research Role	Expected Output	Evidence Required
Visual Art	Artist – creator of the original artwork/s exhibited	Exhibited in a Curated Public Exhibition of Original Work	Documentation in the form of references to a catalogue Published reviews of Exhibition
Music	Composer	Original Published Composition	Documentation in the form of references to recordings (usually CD) or programs from performance Published reviews of recording
Drama	Writer	Original Performed Play	Documentation in the form of references to videos or programs Published reviews of production
Dance	Choreographer	Original Performed Choreography / Production	Documentation in the form of references to video/DVDs or programs Published reviews of performance Theatre listings
Film	Writer	Screening of original film work including documentaries	Documentation in the form of video/DVD Cinema / Competition listings
Creative Writing	Writer	Publication of a piece of fiction	Publication details including ISBN and Publishing House
Environmental Design	Architect, Landscape Architect, Urban Designer	Central role in the design of building or landscape projects	International awards or reviews of drawings or plans published in respected professional or academic journals
Music, Drama, Dance, Film	Performer	Performance at a high international level	Documentation that provides evidence of invited international performances, winning of international competitions or review at international level